JUNE 2020 NEWSLETTER

Did you know?

Having a pet as a family member is more popular than ever in the U.S. According to the AVMA's latest figures, nearly 57% of U.S. households had a pet at the end of 2016. Dogs are the most popular pet with approximately 38% of households owning one or more dogs. Cats are next and are found in 25% of U.S. households. All other species of pets (rabbits, ferrets, reptiles, etc.) make up 13%.

The state with the highest percentage of pet ownership is Wyoming where 72% of households have a pet. West Virginia is next with 71%. On the low end of the range is Rhode Island (45%) and South Dakota (46%).

Boarding Now Open

We are now open for boarding your pet. Due to Covid-19, we have some new procedures and requirements:

- Only one person may enter Animal Clinic of Chardon (ACOC) when admitting and discharging your pet(s).
- Please have a helper with you to wait in the car with your pet(s) while you complete the admit process. Your pet(s) will then be allowed in the building once the process is complete.
- All paperwork must be completed prior to the date of arrival. If this is not done, your boarding reservation will likely be canceled.
- You must wear a facemask in order to enter the building. A facemask will not be provided. You must supply your own.
- Please comply with 6 foot minimum social distancing when in the presence of any employee or client of ACOC.
- ACOC advises against bringing items from home, other than your pet's food. If necessary, you may bring one washable item such as a small blanket. Oversized beds, blankets, and comforters are not permitted. This item must be presented in a bag upon admittance.
- Any toys or treats brought from home must be washable or be presented in a sealed, unopened package.
- Please understand that the admit and discharge process may take longer than usual and could take up to 30 minutes or longer. Plan for this when scheduling.

- You must arrive at your scheduled time for admit and discharge.

We Miss Seeing You!
